

Business Manager Wanted

Can you deliver a countywide credit union for Gloucestershire?

We need an inspirational and driven business manager to make our project happen – setting up a new countywide credit union.

In these troubled times it is more important now than it has ever been that all the people of Gloucestershire have access to financial resources and expertise that they can trust to help them to look after themselves and their families.

The challenge is to transform the existing Gloucester City Credit Union into a viable Gloucestershire wide Credit Union. This will involve helping the existing credit union to expand and deliver their operations to be able to deliver services across the county, bring together a network of partners to provide support to the credit union and provide to support to an emerging strategic board.

We are offering an initial six months contract – hosted and managed by Co-operative Futures – for a person who can convince us that they have the right expertise, energy, enthusiasm and work ethic.

This contract has a salary of £12,000 is available for a successful applicant. You may wish to work on a flexible basis, on a self-employed, output-related basis, or on a secondment agreed with your current employer.

Your first task is to convince us that you're the right person for the job, that you know what you're talking about and that you can deliver what we want in six months.

You should make your pitch by emailing your letter of application, including your curriculum vitae with the details of two work related and one personal referee to info@co-operativefutures.coop by 9am on Monday 20th September 2010. We expect the successful candidate to be able to start working on this project by mid-November.

Shortlisted candidates will be informed by Friday 1st October and interviews will take place on Friday 8th October
